WEDDING.—At three o'clock yesterday the wedding bells announced one of the most brilliant society events in Alexandria. The bride, Miss Anne Balfour Troy, the attractive daughter of Capt. T. O. Troy, formerly superintendent of the Washington division of the Southern Railway, became the bride of Mr. Solomon Sharp Hopkins, the popular jeweler of this city. The marriage took place at Ascension Church, Rev. A. P. Gray officiating. The church was artistically decorated with palms, potted plants and pink chrysanthemums and carpeted in white, giving the effect, under the soft shades of mellow light, of pink and green. While the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march were being rendered by Mrs. C. L. Scott the bride and groom entered the church in the following order: First came the bridesmaids, little Miss Marian Dearborn, cousin of the bridegroom, in white organdie, and Master Randolph Troy, brother of the bride, in white broadcloth. Following them came the ushers, Messrs. Wm. A. Moore, Jr., of this city, and Matthew Troy, of Lynn Mass., brother of the bride, each wearing frock coats and light trousers. Next came the bride, wearing a gown of pink and white, with a long train of white, giving the effect, under the soft shades of mellow light, of pink and green. DISORDERLY NEGROES.—People living in the vicinity of the Fayette street depot were awakened and some terror-stricken by the noise of a mob of twelve or fifteen negroes who were engaged in the riotous behavior of a crowd of negroes who came down Cameron street from the neighborhood of Payne street. They threw stones, yelled, cried murder and made the night hideous generally. It is thought some of them were fighting. It was impossible to ascertain anything concerning the mob from people of their own color and white people were in their houses and could not identify them.

MURDER IN FAUQUIER.—Upon arriving at school Tuesday morning at Marshall, the children found in a building in the rear of the schoolhouse the mangled body of John Andrew Norman, a resident of the neighborhood. The head had been beaten and crushed, and the clothes were badly torn. Excitement is prevailing in the neighborhood, and every effort is being made to solve the mystery of the killing. Thus far, however, no satisfactory clue has been obtained. The dead man is survived by a wife and eight children.

HOLD-UP ON SHUTTER'S HILL.—Orry Goings, who lives a short distance west of this city reports that he was held up on Shutter's Hill Monday night by two strange white men. Fortunately he had no money with him and after he had been closely searched by the highwaymen he was allowed to proceed. It is reported that a colored man, whose name could not be ascertained, was stopped by two white men in the same place Monday night and robbed of $125.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Blanche Berkeley has returned from a visit to friends in the North. Mrs. W. Armstrong this evening at her residence on Prince street very handsomely entertained a number of her friends at a card party.

The Junior Card Club met last night at the residence of the Misses Anley and were charmingly entertained. The prizes were won by Misses Eleanor French and Ruth Bryant and Mr. Millikan.

Here are displayed Dainty China, Rich Cut Glass, Foreign and Domestic Crockery, Artistic Lamps, Fancy Baskets, and Ornamental and Useful Articles of Housefurnishings.

Here are also displayed a vast array of Fancy Pieces from the leading potteries of France, Germany, and Austria—rich, one-of-a-kind things, which a little later cannot be duplicated.

We have grouped, on separate tables in China Department, a very comprehensive collection of appropriate gift articles at the same price, ranging from 5c to $1.00 each, and call attention to the 25c, 50c and $1.00 tables. Many of these articles are of our own direct importation, and even though the prices are low, you will be agreeably surprised at the excellence of the quality and the daintiness of the designs.

Christmas Shopping by Mail.

We desire to direct attention to our perfectly equipped Mail Order Department which offers to the many out-of-town patrons of our establishment prompt and efficient service, all orders being filled—except in rare instances—on day of receipt.
